

Introduction to autism webpage transcript.

Hi everyone and welcome to the Careers page for students with Autism. Below is information on 1-1 meetings and the process for booking them with careers advisors, an interactive 360 degree tour of the careers zones, a e learning course developed by one of our careers consultants Keren Coney, a list of external organisations and resources for autistic students to use, inspiring TED talks of overcoming adversity and getting into employment and personal experiences of Autistic students and graduates.